Mission Statement and Disclaimer

The Indiana Assembly©
Mission Statement

Our Indiana Assembly is dedicated to the restoration of a complete and fully operational land and soil jurisdiction State and County court system serving the people of Indiana, the preservation of the National Trust, the enforcement of the Public Law, the upholding of the Federal Constitution owed to our State and People, the re-population of our land and soil jurisdiction, the filling of vacated Public Offices, and the reclamation of our material and intellectual public and private assets.
To these ends we, the living people of Indiana, have called the eligible Indiana Nationals and Citizen electors to assemble and to serve as Jurors and Officers, and we have established the process and procedure to qualify Jurors and others competent to hold State Citizenship and Public Office.
We do this peacefully and without rancor in the exercise of our unincorporated powers and capacities.

Disclaimer:

We are engaged in the practice of self-government.

Everyone here is volunteering their precious time and skill. Each one is an American with rights and prerogatives equal to your own.

They are doing this work out of mutual necessity, to restore the lawful American Government.

Demands for service, temper tantrums, and misplaced anger are inappropriate.

This country does not belong to its government. This country belongs to the people who live here. And you are one (1) of them.

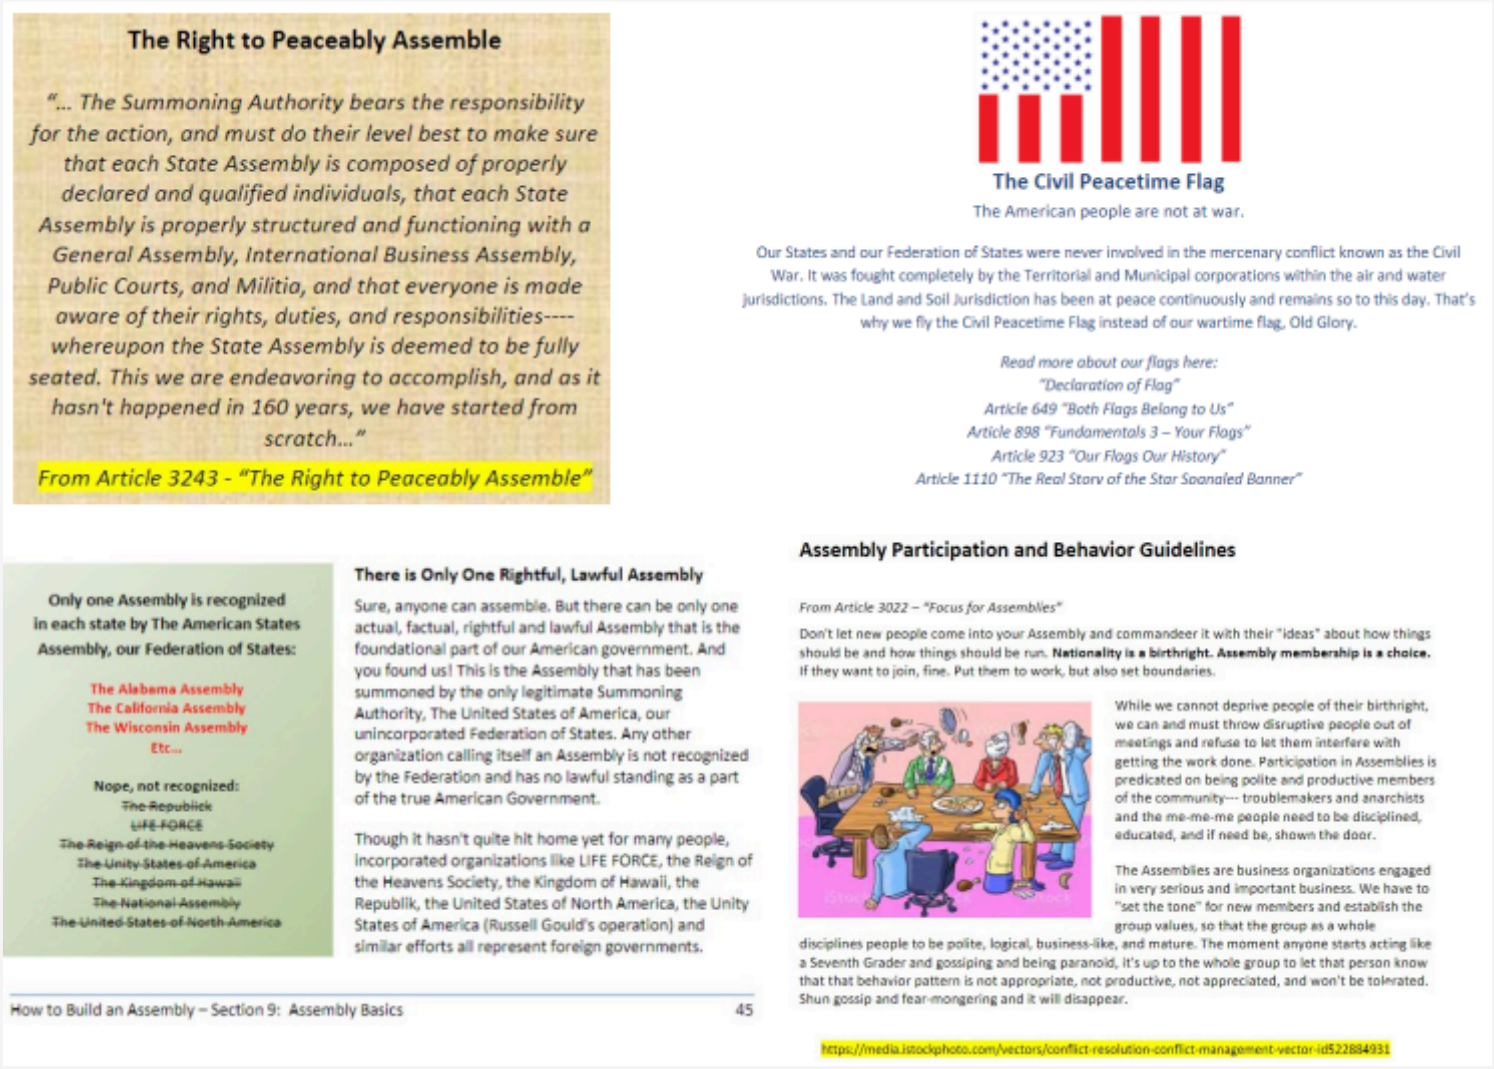
Assembly Participation and Behavior Guidelines



The Right to Peaceably Assemble

"... The Summoning Authority bears the responsibility for the action, and must do their level best to make sure that each State Assembly is composed of properly declared and qualified individuals, that each State Assembly is properly structured and functioning with a General Assembly, International Business Assembly, Public Courts, and Militia, and that everyone is made aware of their rights, duties, and responsibilities---- whereupon the State Assembly is deemed to be fully seated. This we are endeavoring to accomplish, and as it hasn't happened in 160 years, we have started from scratch..."

From Article 3243 - "The Right to Peaceably Assemble"

The Civil Peacetime Flag

The American people are not at war.

Our States and our Federation of States were never involved in the mercenary conflict known as the Civil War. It was fought completely by the Territorial and Municipal corporations within the air and water jurisdictions. The Land and Soil Jurisdiction has been at peace continuously and remains so to this day. That's why we fly the Civil Peacetime Flag instead of our wartime flag, Old Glory.

Read more about our flags here:
"Declaration of Flag"
Article 649 "Both Flags Belong to Us"
Article 898 "Fundamentals 3 – Your Flags"
Article 923 "Our Flags Our History"
Article 1110 "The Real Story of the Star Spangled Banner"

Only one Assembly is recognized in each state by The American States Assembly, our Federation of States:

The Alabama Assembly
The California Assembly
The Wisconsin Assembly
Etc...

Nope, not recognized:
~~The Republick~~
~~LIFE FORCE~~
~~The Reign of the Heavens Society~~
~~The Unity States of America~~
~~The Kingdom of Hawaii~~
~~The National Assembly~~
~~The United States of North America~~

There is Only One Rightful, Lawful Assembly

Sure, anyone can assemble. But there can be only one actual, factual, rightful and lawful Assembly that is the foundational part of our American government. And you found us! This is the Assembly that has been summoned by the only legitimate Summoning Authority, The United States of America, our unincorporated Federation of States. Any other organization calling itself an Assembly is not recognized by the Federation and has no lawful standing as a part of the true American Government.

Though it hasn't quite hit home yet for many people, incorporated organizations like LIFE FORCE, the Reign of the Heavens Society, the Kingdom of Hawaii, the Republik, the United States of North America, the Unity States of America (Russell Gould's operation) and similar efforts all represent foreign governments.

How to Build an Assembly – Section 9: Assembly Basics 45

Assembly Participation and Behavior Guidelines

From Article 3022 – "Focus for Assemblies"

Don't let new people come into your Assembly and commandeer it with their "ideas" about how things should be and how things should be run. Nationality is a birthright. Assembly membership is a choice. If they want to join, fine. Put them to work, but also set boundaries.

While we cannot deprive people of their birthright, we can and must throw disruptive people out of meetings and refuse to let them interfere with getting the work done. Participation in Assemblies is predicated on being polite and productive members of the community--- troublemakers and anarchists and the me-me-me people need to be disciplined, educated, and if need be, shown the door.

The Assemblies are business organizations engaged in very serious and important business. We have to "set the tone" for new members and establish the group values, so that the group as a whole disciplines people to be polite, logical, business-like, and mature. The moment anyone starts acting like a Seventh Grader and gossiping and being paranoid, it's up to the whole group to let that person know that that behavior pattern is not appropriate, not productive, not appreciated, and won't be tolerated. Shun gossip and fear-mongering and it will disappear.

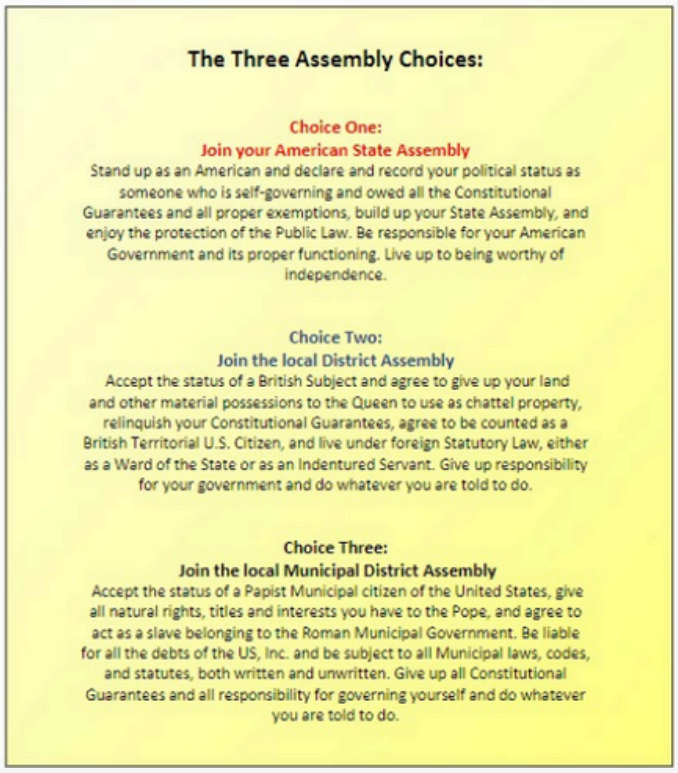
You've Got Three Choices!



The Three Assembly Choices:

Choice One:
Join your American State Assembly
Stand up as an American and declare and record your political status as someone who is self-governing and owed all the Constitutional Guarantees and all proper exemptions, build up your State Assembly, and enjoy the protection of the Public Law. Be responsible for your American Government and its proper functioning. Live up to being worthy of independence.

Choice Two:
Join the local District Assembly
Accept the status of a British Subject and agree to give up your land and other material possessions to the Queen to use as chattel property, relinquish your Constitutional Guarantees, agree to be counted as a British Territorial U.S. Citizen, and live under foreign Statutory Law, either as a Ward of the State or as an Indentured Servant. Give up responsibility for your government and do whatever you are told to do.

Choice Three:
Join the local Municipal District Assembly
Accept the status of a Papist Municipal citizen of the United States, give all natural rights, titles and interests you have to the Pope, and agree to act as a slave belonging to the Roman Municipal Government. Be liable for all the debts of the US, Inc. and be subject to all Municipal laws, codes, and statutes, both written and unwritten. Give up all Constitutional Guarantees and all responsibility for governing yourself and do whatever you are told to do.

What are the classic signs of Infiltrators?

1. Attack the Leaders: Coordinator, Anna, James
2. Attack the foundational elements; Paperwork and the Assembly Process
3. Attack any progress made so far
4. Attack Assembly ability to make money – we are all volunteer
5. Divide and Conquer
6. Gossip
7. Accuse others of what they are doing themselves
8. Attempt to set up a gravy train out of Assembly Members
9. Secret Meetings/Agendas
10. Hijack Meeting Agenda
11. Lead with Ego: Me, me, me, I, I, I
12. Elect themselves to several different offices
13. Attempt to create conflict and fight, fight, fight

Article 5021 Committee of the Whole Clarification for Militia https://annavonreitz.com/clarificationformilitia.pdf

At the outset, after an individual has been advised of the facts and has made their declaration recovering their birthright status as an American, they have a choice. They can join their State Assembly or not.

Once they have made that decision and have joined the State Assembly, they have also accepted certain obligations as members and participants in the State Government.

If they are eligible to serve as State Citizens they are automatically considered members of the International Business Assembly as well as the General Assembly, and must show reasonable good cause for not serving in this capacity.

The same is true of the General Membership and the Jural Assembly. All members can be called upon to serve as Jurors and form two common law jury pools depending on the nature of each case to be considered --- whether the matter is totally within state borders, or is international in nature. Again, as State Assembly members we are obligated to serve unless we show good cause otherwise.

The same is true of the Militia. We are expected to participate unless there is good cause why our participation is not possible or ill-advised at a given time.

This element of duty which is not present in Common Committees means that each of these Four Pillars is in fact a separate Assembly in its own right.

Everyone who is eligible is expected to serve as State Citizens, if they can, as Jurors, if they can, and as Militia members, if they can.

"For an adult to choose the status of State National usually implies some condition of need. ASN or ASC?

From Article 2492 – "Assembly Administration Questions and Covid 19"

A State Citizen holds a unique allegiance to their State of the Union, so as to guarantee as much as possible, no conflicts of interest on their part. Unique means "singular". While participating as a State Citizen and acting as a member of a State Assembly you may not hold any other allegiance to any other government. Period. This prohibition applies to Tribal Governments, State of State governments, the U.S. Federal Citizenships, and more obviously foreign governments, like England, Germany, and France.

You can be either: (1) a State National or (2) a State Citizen.

Being a State National or a State Citizen does not necessarily mean that you qualify to be a State Elector. You can be part of the State Jural Assembly and serve as a Juror without being a State Elector. You can be elected to a Public Office, such as Sheriff, without being able to vote for yourself. This is because of the pesky issue of letting non-landowners vote on questions that only affect landowners, and therefore the requirement that State Electors be landowners.

State Nationals, State Citizens and Electors

From Article 1566 – "For All The State Jural Assemblies - 25 State Electors, State Nationals, and State Citizens," By Anna Von Reitz

State Nationals = everyone born within the physical geographical borders of a State. A National has no particular duty to serve the State other than to obey the Public Law (Non-Statutory Law) and keep the peace.

State Citizens = those State Nationals who additionally choose to serve the State Government in some capacity, such as Jurors, Militia Members, elected officials, or hired officers.

State Electors = those State Nationals who own land in the State and meet other requirements such as legal age, etc., to participate in State Elections.

How are You Choosing to Show Up in These Days?

dull (adj.)

c. 1200, "stupid, slow of understanding, not quick in perception;" also, of points or edges, "blunt, not sharp;" apparently from Old English dol "dull-witted, foolish," or an unrecorded parallel word, or from Middle Low German dul "foolish, reckless," both from Proto-Germanic dulaz* (source also of Old Frisian dol "reckless," Middle Dutch dol, dul "stupid, foolish, crazy," Old Saxon dol, Old High German tol "foolish, dull," German toll "mad, wild," Gothic dwals "foolish"). This sometimes is conjectured to be from PIE dhul-*, from root *dheu- (1) "dust, vapor, smoke," which also produced words for "defective perception or wits, turbidity of the mind" (compare Greek tholos "mud dirt," Old Irish dall "blind").

Dull. Ineffective for the purpose aimed at, wanting in life. A dull edge is one that will not cut ; a dull understanding, does not readily apprehend ; a dull day is wanting in light, the element which constitutes its life ; dull of sight or of hearing is ineffective in respect of those faculties. [Wedgwood]

From late 12c. as a surname. Rare before mid-14c. Of color "not bright or clear," from early 15c.; of pain or other sensations, "not sharp or intense," from 1725. Sense of "not pleasing or enlivening, uninteresting, tedious" is from c. 1400. Related: Dullness.

dull. (8) Not exhilarating; not delightful; as to make dictionaries is dull work. [Johnson]

dull (v.)

c. 1200, "to lessen the vigor, activity, or sensitiveness of" (transitive), from dull (adj.). Of pointed or edged things, "make less sharp, render blunt," from late 14c. Of colors, glass, etc., "remove the brightness or clearness of," late 14c. Intransitive sense of "lose vigor, intensity, or keenness" is from late 14c. Related: Dulled; dulling.

sharp (adj.)

Old English scearp "having a cutting edge; pointed; intellectually acute, active, shrewd; keen (of senses); severe; biting, bitter (of tastes)," from Proto-Germanic skarpaz*, literally "cutting" (source also of Old Saxon scarp, Old Norse skarpr, Old Frisian skerp, Dutch scherp, German scharf "sharp"), from PIE root *sker- (1) "to cut" (source also of Lettish skarbs "sharp," Middle Irish cerb "cutting").

The figurative meaning "acute or penetrating in intellect or perception" was in Old English; hence "keenly alive to one's own interests, quick to take advantage" (1690s). Of words or talk, "cutting, sarcastic," from early 13c. Meaning "distinct in contour" is from 1670s. The musical meaning "half step above (a given tone)" is from 1570s. Meaning "stylish" is from 1944, hepster slang, from earlier general slang sense of "excellent" (1940). Phrase sharp as a tack first recorded 1912 (sharp as a needle has been around since Old English). Sharp-shinned attested from 1704 of persons, 1813 of hawks.

sharpness (n.)

"state or character of being sharp; keenness of edge or point; intellectual shrewdness," Old English scearpnis; see sharp (adj.) + -ness. "Ancrene Riwle" (c. 1200) has scharp schipe ("sharpship").

sharpen (v.)

late 14c., sharpenen, "intensify;" mid-15c., "make a point sharp or sharper," from sharp (adj.) + -en (1). Related: Sharpened; sharpening. The older verb was simply sharp (Middle English sharpen), from the adjective and partly from Old English gescirpan (West Saxon), scerpan (Anglian) "to score, scarify;" also compare scearpung "scarifying."

To sharpen (one's) pencil in the figurative sense of "prepare to get to work" is by 1957, American English.
